Local Chapter Awards

Each year, the Ohio State Chapter of Phi Kappa Phi nominates one student for the national Fellowship and awards the following three local scholarships: Undergraduate Enrichment Award, Outstanding First Year Student Award, and the Graduate Award. The 2013 award recipients are:

- Ted R. Robinson Undergraduate Enrichment Award: Devin Oliver
- Vern A. Vandamark Outstanding First Year Award: Lauren Chen
- Louise B. Vetter Outstanding Graduate Award: Ashley Fenn
- Chapter Nominee for Graduate Fellowship and winner of the (national) Alice and Russell True Foundation Marcus L. Urann Fellowship: Alex Chaitoff (pictured)

We are so proud that our chapter has had several fellowship nominees go on to become national winners in the past decade, including two, back-to-back winners of $15,000 named fellowships!
The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi's ongoing commitment to excellence is reflected in its scholarships and awards programs.

- Go to “Awards” tab on phikappaphi.org for more info!

More than $800,000 is awarded each year through the Society's various awards competitions to all members (for education, professional development, etc).
